RULINGS
Mr. J. G. S. MacNeill: "I will now proceed, with the permission of the House, to move the Amendment I have upon the Paper."
Mr. SPEAKER—
"The Amendment which appears on the Paper contains a number of subjects it would not be proper to move upon an Address to the Queen's Speech. What I wish to point out to the hon. Member is that some portions of his Amendment are not relevant."—12 Feb., 396

Mr. J. E. Redmond: "I beg to move that the Question be now put."
Mr. SPEAKER—
"Considering that this Debate has only lasted for one hour since the time when the hon. Member who introduced the Bill sat down, and other hon. Members have risen to speak on both sides of the House, I think further time should be allowed for the discussion of the Bill."—17 Feb., 661

Mr. A. O'Connor: "Mr. Speaker, I would wish to ask you, Sir, in the case of varying and doubtful texts, or an official issue being made of certain words, is it competent for any Department to direct the printers to alter the text without the authority of an Act of Parliament?"
Mr. SPEAKER—
"I think the proper test to apply would be whether there were any error either here or in the House of Lords. There has been no error. The Clerk in this House and the Clerk in the House of Lords made the proper entry, and the defect arose purely from an error of the draftsman, which perhaps he had been led into. The true record is the signed copy of the Act, which is perfectly correct."—18 Feb., 688

Petition against Opium Trade read by Clerk at the Table. Mr. Mac Neill: "I beg to ask you, Mr. Speaker, can this Petition be placed on the Minutes of the House, and appear as part of our proceedings?"

[cont.

SPEAKER, THE—cont.

Mr. SPEAKER—
"It will be treated as Petitions are treated —in the ordinary way."—19 Feb., 810.

Mr. Chance: "That the Bill be referred to a Hybrid Committee of seven Members, and that the Committee have power to appoint the hon. Member for West Belfast as one of the Members."

Mr. SPEAKER—
"The proper course is to wait until the Bill is committed. When the Bill is committed, it can then be settled what proportion of Members shall constitute the Hybrid Committee."—26 Feb., 1362

Referring to Mr. H. Gardner.

Mr. SPEAKER—
"The hon. Member has no right of reply, as there is no Amendment before the House." —26 Feb., 1425

Mr. W. Johnston: "The sharp practice of the hon. Member, &c."

Mr. SPEAKER—
"I do not think that the hon. Member should use such a phrase. Such an expression cannot be permitted."—26 Feb., 1432

Mr. T. M. Healy: "I should like to ask you, Mr. Speaker, whether it is not always the practice of the Government on Fridays to set up Supply a second time?"

Mr. SPEAKER—
"That entirely depends upon the Government, and the time of night."—26 Feb., 1447

Mr. Boulnois: "If, Sir, I do not oppose the Second Reading of the Bill now, and wish to move the Reference of the Bill to a Hybrid Committee, should I be able to make that Motion now or at a later day?"

Mr. SPEAKER—
"The Bill, if unopposed, will be read a second time and referred to an ordinary Select Committee. It will be open to the hon. Member to move the discharge of the Order for reference to a Select Committee, and to move that the Bill be referred to a Hybrid Committee."

Mr. Boulnois: "Shall I be able to do that now if the Second Reading is unopposed?"

Mr. SPEAKER—
"The Question now is the Second Reading, and whether this is opposed or not a subsequent Motion may, as Opposed Business, be deferred to a later day."

[Later] Mr. Boulnois: "I give notice that to-morrow I shall make the Motion for the reference of the Bill to a Hybrid Committee."

Mr. SPEAKER—
"The hon. Member should in terms make his Motion now."—3 March, 1772

Mr. A. J. Balfour: "It may be convenient for the House if I were to ask you, Sir, what interpretation should be put upon the phrase "financial business," before it is adopted?"

Mr. SPEAKER—
"I think it is rather a matter for the House itself. But looking at the words which are used, I should say they included Supply, the Report of Supply, and the Ways and Means Bill; and unless a limitation 'until Easter' is introduced into the proposition, it will, of course, apply to the Budget. That would be the natural interpretation I should be disposed to put upon it; but it is a matter for the House, and I am not the arbiter of the question."—3 March, 1808

Mr. Sexton: "I beg to move, after the word "Friday," to insert these words "except Tuesday, 29th March."

Mr. SPEAKER—
"There is already a Motion before the House to restrict the operation of this Resolution until Easter, and that Resolution I will put from the Chair."—3 March, 1814

Referring to Mr. Conybeare.

Mr. SPEAKER—
"The hon. Member is discussing the merits of a particular Bill, and not the appropriation of a particular day."—3 March, 1817

Mr. Cremer: "I understood that I should be able to move this Amendment."

Mr. SPEAKER—
